

The Blue Ribbon Classes Are All Here

The Berry store is an exposition of the winners in Suits and Overcoats.

Special styles for young men—racy colors, fast patterns, club checks.

To keep track of the new fashions make regular laps to this shop.

If to-day is not fair, remember we have all kinds of Raincoats, Shower Coats and Slip-ons.

If you "enjoy something different" in a suit, get acquainted with our suit family.

$15 to $40.

A lot of perfectly dandy Blue and Green Soft Hats came in yesterday.

Reception to-day—be in line.

B. F. Lewis, of Pennsylvania, Captures Chief Prize at State Fair Show.

Champion Landseer, Artemis, a greyhound owned by B. F. Lewis of Lansdowne, Pa., won the all-breed prize open to all exhibitors in the dog show at the State Fair, except that Artemis took the award calling him the other dog from the biggest mite in the show to Champion Dainty Mite, the Pomeranian, owned by their appraiser.

This was the first dog show ever held by the Virginia State Fair Association and George F. Peaster, Superintendent and Secretary of the show, said that it is one of the best in his memory seen.

Reginald Vannatta, the well-known sportman of New York, was the interested spectator. He has been here two days. Many State and local exhibitors had entries in the show. Much was displayed in the buildings which are prime favorites with the spectators, and there was more than passing interest in the hunting dogs of all breeds and many splendid specimens were shown.

The largest number of entries were in collies and spaniels, and the unusual and interesting were the six German police dogs, owned by Thomas Fortune Ryan, of Nelson County.

The prize for the best dog owned and bred in Virginia went to Halton Rockwood's Dalmatian, owned by Mrs. Halstead Yates, of Oak Ridge, Nelson Co. The Dalmatian is the breed of dog commonly known as the coach dog.

Champion Dainty Mite, a tiny specimen of the Pomeranian, weighing only 2 1/2 pounds, owned by Mrs. E. S. Avis, of Wilmington, Del., won the special prize as the best toy dog in the show.

The American Yorkshire Club, special Best young herd, owned and bred by exhibitor, who must be a member of the above club, and animals registered in the above record—first, F. E. Kite.
